

Baba N Kalyani awarded by FKCCI

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

PUNE, SEPTEMBER 21

BABA N KALYANI, chairman and managing director of Bharat Forge, was conferred the 'Bharatratna Sir M Visvesvaraya Memorial Award — 2014' by the Federation of Karnataka Chambers of Commerce & Industry at a function in Bengaluru on Saturday.

D V Sadananda Gowda,

FKCCI instituted the award in 1999 to acknowledge contribution to economic and social development

Union minister for Railways; Dr Narendra Jadhav, former member of the Planning Commission of India; S Sampathraman, president, FKCCI and others were present at the occasion. Sampathraman said, "We are proud of his achievements and we deem it a privilege to honour Shri Baba Kalyani with the Bharat Ratna Sir M Visvesvaraya Memorial Award 2014."

On the occasion, Kalyani said, "The Prime Minister has strong focus on industrialisation and manufacturing seems to be his priority. We industrialists too are ready to take up the challenge of building a new India," he said. He thanked the Prime Minister for the 'Make in India' policy to boost manufacturing.